The Estate

Owned and operated by Paul and Philippe Zinck, just a few kilometers southwest of Colmar, the Zinck winery is located in Eguisheim, one of the loveliest villages in Alsace. Sheltered by the Vosges mountains, the climate is semi-continental, quite sunny, temperate and dry. The vineyards cover over 20 hectares and produce wines with labels guaranteeing the origin of the wine, AOC. These include AOC Alsace, AOC Grand Cru, AOC Crémant of Alsace, and special mentions for the vendanges tardives and grains nobles. The rich earth-silt—chalky with clay-silt and volcanic ash—allows cultivation of all the Alsatian varieties, including Pinot Blanc, Pinot Gris, Riesling and Gewürztraminer.

Wine Making

The Rosé Crémant, made exclusively with Pinot Noir grapes, gets its slightly pink hue from a short maceration before pressing. Made in the traditional method, Philippe utilizes two previous vintages to create a consistent flavor profile from year to year.

Tasting Notes

The nose is full of aromas of cherry, raspberry, wild strawberries. A refreshing touch of acid and a solid structure on the plate make this an ideal accompaniment to white meat or fish dishes. It has a persistent, lively finish, with bubbles becoming ever silkier.
