Minervois La Livinière Cuvée Les Trois Ecus

AOP Minervois-La Livinière

Brand Highlights

- 40% Syrah, 40% Grenache, 15% Cinsault, 5% Carignan
- Made from the best terroirs of the Cru La Livinière, the first Cru of the Languedoc
- Developed by three childhood friends who partnered with David Ciry, winemaker from the Languedoc with international experience in wine-making

The Estate

The estate consists of 15 hectares (37 acres) of vineyard split in 22 plots covering an area of 10km North to South and 10km East to West over the territories of La Livinière and Siran, the very heart of the Cru La Livinière, facing the Pyrenees Mountains. Great diversity of soils, mainly clay/limestone with some sandstone outcrops, and grape varieties, the vines are planted over five different soil types—Les Combes, Le Village, Les Terrasses, Fournes and Fauzan.

Wine Making

Made from the best terroirs of the Cru La Livinière, in the towns of La Livinière and Siran. Here, very old vines (planted circa 1932) have been planted on filtering soils composed of clay & limestone. Grapes are hand-picked. Aged 18 months, including 12 months in French oak.
