DOC

Brand Highlights

- 100% Nebbiolo from the Piedmont region of Italy
- Veteran winemaker Gianni Voerzio is joined by Mirko & Federica Martini to introduce a new premium family of wines from grapes indigenous to the Piedmont region
- Single vineyard Nebbiolo—made from grapes grown in the Boilo vineyard, north of La Serra vineyard

The Estate

VoerzioMartini introduces the newest generation of wine makers in Piedmont, Italy. Gianni Voerzio has been making wine for more than 30 years in these vineyards....he is now joined by twins Mirko & Federica Martini who will continue the brand's terroir-driven winemaking tradition. The vineyards are located in Langhe, a wine region within Piedmont known for its beautiful rolling hills topped by picturesque towns. With eight hectares of total vineyard land located in the La Morra region of the Langhe, the wines from VoerzioMartini emphasize the characteristics of the soil and terroir of this fast growing wine region.

Wine Making

The winery is located in La Morra. Federika handles the operational side of the business while Mirko is the head winemaker, with guidance and mentoring from Gianni. Mirko's approach is a more traditional style—lots of concentration, less new oak and larger barrels for aging. All grapes are harvested by hand using small crates to prevent crushing. Fermentation of the Nebbiolo takes place in stainless steel tanks and lasts approximately two weeks. Malolactic fermentation and subsequent aging takes place in French oak for 6-8 months. Both casks and large fine-grained oak barrels are used in the aging process.

Tasting Notes

Vibrant ruby red color with shades of purple. Intense aromas of rose, cherry pit and sage combined with red fruits. Full-flavor with beautiful balance—red fruit, vanilla and sweet spice make this a very easy-to-drink wine. This is a big Nebbiolo—some might call it a Baby Barolo.
